We are in receipt of the campaign finance report as listed above.

The report was received in this office after the deadline and unless you have proof of timely mailing, or a receipt from this office, we are required to assess a late fee as listed above. The fee is the joint and several personal liabilities of the chairman and treasurer for a committee account. The late fee may not be paid directly or indirectly from campaign funds. Please make checks or money orders payable to State Board of Elections.

This letter is to advise you, pursuant to Election Law Article Section 13-331(C), that the above referenced report may not be considered as being officially filed until such time as the late fee is paid. Election Law Article Section 13-335 grant you thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of this letter to remedy this failure by paying the late fee, or to show cause in writing why the late fee is not properly assessed before this matter must be referred to the proper prosecuting authority for further action.

In accordance with Election Law Article Section 13-332, if you fail to timely comply with the above requirement you will also be prohibited from being a candidate, chairperson or treasurers in any election for a period of five years. In addition a conviction for failure to officially file the report could result in the imposition of a fine up to $1,000.00 and imprisonment for up to one year.

If you have any question please do not hesitate to contact Victoria Molina at the listed numbers.
